Requirements for the AAAS Major

- 39 credit hours.
- 18 hours of required AAS courses:
 - AAS 100: Introduction to African Studies
 - AAS 200: Introduction to African American Studies
 - AAS 301: Introduction to the African Diaspora
 - AAS 400: Special Topics in African American Studies (taken twice under different subtitles)
 - AAS 401: Reading and Research in AAAS (capstone course and fulfills Graduate Composition & Communication Requirement [GCCR])
- 15 hours of electives from an approved list.
 - 12 credits must be at the 300-level or above (many of these courses are cross-listed with AAS and other departments).
 - 6 or more credits of free electives (non-AAS prefix) at the 200-level or above in allied departments.
 - Allied departments include A&S, AIS, A-H, HIS, SOC, ENG, MCLLC, MUS, ANT, GEO, PS, SW, EDP, and GWS.
 - Free electives may not be counted toward the UK Core or A&S requirements.

Requirements for the AAAS Minor

- 18 credit hours
- Major courses (9 credits)
 - AAS 100 (also HIS 100): Introduction to African Studies
 - AAS 200: Introduction to African American Studies
 - AAS 301: Introduction to the African Diaspora
- Guided electives (9 credits):
 - Students must complete 9 additional credit hours of AAS prefix coursework. These courses include but are not limited to:
 - AAS 400: Special Topics in African American Studies: a detailed investigation of a particular topic in Black Studies, with emphasis both on content and existing research. Topics will vary from semester to semester and are announced the preceding semester. This course may be repeated a maximum of six credits when identified by a different subtitle.
 - AAS 401: Reading and Research in AAAS: The student pursues a course of reading and research under the guidance of an Instructor which culminates in a major research project.
- Other courses may be used to satisfy this requirement with permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS).
- Other AAAS minor facts:
 - Only students who declare the AAAS minor in fall 2021 or later will automatically be under the new curriculum.
 - Technically, students should complete the curriculum tied to the year they declared the minor.
 - Anyone who declared the minor prior to the first day of class in fall 2021, and wants to switch to the new curriculum, would have to request that the audit year for their minor be changed to 2021-22 through asadvisingcenter@uky.edu
